A New Beginning for Stitching On State

Dear Friends,

I'm here! I figured it out! This email is probably one of one hundred things I have to learn. I wanted everyone to know that I've been working really hard on the operations end of this business so that I can get our quilt shop back up and running. Terri is chomping at the bit to get fabric orders in too!

Look for some subtle changes when you come see us. New paint, floor to ceiling, upstairs and down. New and improved public restroom. Most important...FABRIC, FABRIC AND MORE!!!!

For right now I'm working on becoming a Pfaff dealer and authorized repair shop. Once I have this established, I can look at adding other lines.

My goal for our reopening the shop is mid January. I'll keep you posted! In the meantime, feel free to reach out and share if you have any suggestions or specific items on your Wish List.

Looking forward to meeting you all :)

Pat
